The batched candidate did not qualify

Three complete comparison cells; 19 successful primary observations before the retry stalled.

Hollow diamond: incomplete cell, with only four successful observations. The +5% line is a minimum criterion; passing reliability, within-run noise and the full workload are also required. No overall gain or candidate concurrency result.